FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Machine Worx becomes stocking dealer for Castle USA

Machine Worx, LLC, the Southeast's leading supplier of shop automation technology, is proud to announce a new partnership with Castle, Inc. Worx has recently agreed to become a stocking dealer for Castle's patented pocket-hole machine, their ergonomically designed frame assembly tables, as well as replacement parts and accessories.

"These products compliment our shop automation products very well. We have worked with Castle in the past on a limited basis and our customers have had outstanding success with their products", says Roger Taylor, President of Machine Worx, LLC. "We look forward to growing this partnership and making Castle's products available to all our customers".

For more information on the Castle line of assembly tools contact, Machine Worx, LLC at 1108 38th Street, Tuscaloosa, AL 35401, 888-272-WORX.
